Purpose

Both partners agree to work together to create, manage, and grow the YouTube channel listed below.

Equal Ownership

Both partners own the channel equally (50% – 50%) regardless of who performs more or fewer tasks.

Revenue Split

All earnings from ads, sponsorships, merchandise, brand deals, affiliate links, or any other channel-related income will be split equally.

Responsibilities

Partners share tasks such as content creation, filming, editing, posting, music production, comments, social media, and email/brand deal handling.

Access Rights

Both partners must have full and equal access to the YouTube account, AdSense, email, social media, and channel tools at all times.

Channel Expenses

Any purchase using channel earnings must be discussed and agreed upon by both partners.

Leaving the Channel

A partner who leaves receives their 50% of past earnings only. Future earnings belong to the continuing partner.

Dispute Resolution

Partners will try to resolve disagreements calmly. If needed, a neutral person may help mediate.
